Title: Persuasive letter writing

Learning Intention/Description of Learning Activity:
The student, through this activity, is expected to know the writing process and be able to write persuasively. Students craft a letter by first brainstorming ideas, clustering their thoughts and creating a first draft. The student shares the draft with others for editing and finishes the draft for the teacher to review. The topics are varied. In this case, the student chose to write a letter to Enbridge to persuade the company

Teacher Comments/Feedback:
This is a great start! The student explains reasons for and against building a pipeline. These reasons help to provide context to the Student Self Reflection:

Next Steps:
Do some more research about the reasons for having a pipeline. Knowing more about the subject will help you to make a better reasoned explanation for your position.
